

At Home Devotion Guide

We encourage everyone to use this guide in your home this week and to adapt it to your specific household situation. This guide can be used in one sitting or can be broken up and used throughout the week.

Sermon Reflection

Read passage from sermon: Acts 8:25-40

For young children: God used Philip to share the good news of Jesus with a man who had never heard! We should also share the good news with others.

For older children and adults: Philip's evangelistic encounter with the Ethiopian eunuch is an example for us. God was working in the eunuch before he met Philip, and Philip obediently proclaimed the gospel as God directed him. We need to recognize that God is at work in people around us and we must obediently share the gospel with those he places in our path.

Question: Who has God put in your life that you have opportunities to share the gospel with?

Pray: Pray for individuals you know who need the gospel.

Weekly Catechism Questions

For Children: Does God know all things? Yes. Nothing can be hidden from God.
(1 Kings 8:39; 1 Chronicles 28:9; 2 Chronicles 16:9; Luke 12:6-7; Romans 2:16).

For older children and Adults: Since no one can keep the law, what is its purpose? That we may know the holy nature and will of God, and the sinful nature and disobedience of our hearts; and thus our need of a Savior. The law also teaches and exhorts us to live a life worthy of our Savior.

How to Use This Guide

At Bethany, we recognize that worship is not just something that happens on Sunday morning. Though corporate worship is important, it is also important that we are striving to worship God in our homes on a regular basis. According to Donald Whitney, "God deserves to be worshiped daily in our homes by our families." This guide will help you to lead worship in your home.

Scripture- Begin by reading the passage from the sermon. Based on the ages of those involved, briefly discuss the meaning of the passage and how it applies to your lives.

Catechism- This is a great way to learn what the whole Bible teaches about a particular topic. Read the question, then read the answer. If possible, try to put the answer in your own words.

Prayer- Pray that God would help you obey and understand the truth that you just discussed.

Sing- If someone is able to lead in song, then take some time to sing to the Lord. The guide will provide a suggested hymn from The Baptist Hymnal, 2008.

Feel free to adapt this guide to your particular household situation. This is not meant to be a heavy burden. It is an aid in helping members of your household to grow in Christ.

Families with young children- Don't feel like your devotions have to be long and tedious. Start with short amounts of time, then get longer as the children get older.

Families with older children- Also, don't feel like your devotions have to be long and tedious. Avoid 'preaching' to your family. Instead, let the word of God speak for itself.

Couples without children- This guide is for you as well! Household devotions will help you go deeper in your study of God's word and grow together in Christ.

Singles who live alone- Utilize this guide as part of your regular devotion time.

Begin today! This discipline will help you and other members of your household grow in their walk with Christ. It will also aid you in passing on the faith to the next generation.
